HUNGER'S VICTIMS.

A Husband, Driven Insane by Starvation,

MAKES A DEADLY ATTACK ON HIS WIFE.

The Four Children of the Family Fought Like Wild Beasts for the Food Set Before Them by the Anti-Cruelty Society.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Feb. 7.—Driven to desperation bordering on insanity from hunger and poverty, Louis Williams, colored, made a probably successful attempt to murder his wife yesterday at their home on Stockholm street, in the Twelfth ward. Without a word of provocation or an instant's warning Williams crushed his wife's skull with a baton, afterward kicking her almost lifeless body in a fiendish manner.

Williams immediately attempted suicide by taking what he supposed was rough on rats. It proved, however, to be soap bark, and resulted only in making him very sick. At the police station Williams showed unmistakable signs of insanity, and seemed happy when told his wife would die.

The scene of the tragedy presents the most abject poverty imaginable. The four children, ranging in age from 1 to 6 years, were in a pitiable condition. The hotel was without a spark of fire or a morsel of food and almost devoid of furniture.

When food was placed before the children at the Anti-Cruelty society rooms they fought for it with the desperation of starving animals.

Mrs. Williams was taken to the West Pennsylvania hospital, where it is said she cannot recover from her injuries. She is 25 years of age, and for several months has been the sole support of the family. Williams is 32 years of age, and was very industrious at his trade of plasterer when work could be had. The family came from Culpeper, Va., four years ago.

TELEGRAPHIC NOTES.

—The president yesterday sent to the senate the nomination of Maj.-Gen. John McAllister Schofield to be lieutenant-general.

—The cold which is now being experienced throughout Great Britain is the most severe that has been felt for years. The thermometer in the midlands averages several degrees below zero.

—A dispatch from Shanghai says that on Sunday a number of Chinese soldiers attacked Capt. Cartwright of the British war ship Pigeon, in the streets of Nankin, shooting at him and pelting him with mud. No preparation for the assault has been made.

—An American named S. M. Burroughs died at Montecarlo, yesterday morning from pneumonia, after forty-eight hours' illness. His papers showed him to be engaged in business under the name of Burroughs & Welcome.

—Sir William Vernon Harcourt, British chancellor of the exchequer, is ill and confined to his bed, suffering from a chill. He has written to Mr. Morley, chief secretary for Ireland, requesting that gentleman to assume charge of parliamentary business pending his recovery.

—A Lima (Peru) special says: Rebels are advancing on this city. Their scouts are approaching the outskirts. The food supply has been cut off, and the people are suffering. It is reported that Atiquipa was captured by the rebels through the treachery of the garrison.

—Three masked burglars drugged the night watchman, blew open the safe and robbed the post office at Matewan, N. Y., of $200 in stamps and some registered mail matter. As they were escaping Officer Marshall was seriously, if not fatally, shot.

A "SHOOTIST" SHOT.

A Woman Confesses the Deed Believed to Have Been Committed by Her Paramour.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Feb. 7.—Dr. John E. Rader, a mountain physician and "shootist," was found dead yesterday morning in the house of Widow Catherine McQuinn, four miles from Jackson, Breathitt county. Two bullets had been fired through his breast, each one of which would have been fatal. Widow McQuinn said she did the shooting and surrendered to the officers. She refused to assign any reason for committing the deed. T. M. Smith, her paramour, is suspected of having been the real murderer, and the officers are looking for him.

Ten Carpenter farm of 320 acres, just south of Piper City, was sold at auction for partition. The land brought $21,550. T. S. O. and J. V. McDowell, of Fairbury, were the successful bidders.

Ar Gibson Milton C. Sterlen, a train boy of the Wabash road, was arrested, charged with selling obscene books. He went to jail in default of bail.

A former resident of Odell, W. E. Houchin, now living at Geneva, Neb., has been appointed engraving clerk in the legislature at Lincoln, Neb.

WILCOX AND NOWLEIN,

The Chiefs of the Hawaiian Uprising, Captured by Strategy.

HONOLULU, Jan. 30, via SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 7.—After the departure of the Alameda on the 15th, there was a general renewal of activity in pursuit of Wilcox and Nowlein. A large party was sent to Upper Nuanu on Friday afternoon, the 11th, and fresh details of men went out to the Waialea region, where W. A. Kinney and Tim Murray were actively scouting.

A reinforcement went to the force guarding the Waianae pass at Makapine. The most important was a body of thirty native police, who went above Tantalus, on the morning of the 12th, under Capt. Robert Parker and a deputy marshal.

These natives searched and scoured the ridges above Panou and Manoa as far as Waialea valley. Many recent traces of the fugitives were found. No capture was made in the mountains and valley heads.

At Waialea Parker found William Auld, and succeeded in extracting from him the name of a messenger of Nowlein's who lived at Moehili. He telephoned to the marshal, who at once went out in person and arrested the man. The marshal frightened him into confessing that Nowlein and three others were concealed in the shrubbery near his house and being fed by his family.

The marshal hastily gathered a posse of whites and went out and bullied the man's family into disclosing the fugitives' hiding place. They were brought in at noon of the 12th—Samuel Nowlein, the chief, with Wilcox, of the insurrection, looked greatly depressed. With him were his three lieutenants, Karl Widemann, Geig and Marshall, the last a white youth.

The leading native concerned, Bipi-kane, was brought in from Waialea at 10 p. m. on the 12th.

At 3 p. m. on the 14th, after the arrival of Nowlein, C. G. Hopkins, an ex-marshal and half white, became frightened, and disclosed to W. O. Smith the whereabouts of Bob Wilcox. He had been concealed for two days at Hopkins' fishing place on the reef. Five hawks with men went out below the prison and near to the receiving station in Kahili to intercept him.

A hawk had previously gone through the shoal water to remove Wilcox to some other retreat. He was intercepted and seized upon reaching the shore below the prison. He was greatly agitated and begged to be delivered, at 5 p. m., to the general satisfaction of the public.

ALL OR NONE.

The Terms Upon Which Belmont Wanted the Government Loan.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—Messrs Belmont, Morgan and the other New York financiers who have been for several days consulting with the president and Secretary Carlisle on placing the contemplated bond issue, have returned to New York. Mr. Morgan, it is said, offered to place all of the $10,000,000 of bonds abroad, but wanted a rate of interest that would approximate 4 per cent. annually. He also wanted the whole issue and is quoted as saying that he would only take it on the basis specified, the whole issue or none.

The decision of bonds to be issued is not decided upon, although the general belief is that it will be four, running for thirty years.

DAVID NIXON, formerly of Pekin, was recently very seriously stabbed at his home on a farm near Topeka, Kansas.

A FARMER'S meeting has been held in Minier to consider the propriety of operating an elevator there.

PROGRESS.

People who get the greatest degree of comfort and real enjoyment out of life, are those who make the most out of their opportunities. Quick perception and good judgment, lead such promptly to adopt and make use of those refined and improved products of modern inventive genius which best serve the needs of their physical being. Accordingly, the most intelligent and progressive people are found to employ the most refined and perfect laxative—GUTHRIE and TONE UP the Stomach, Liver, and bowels when in need of such an agent—hence the great popularity of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. These are made from the purest, most refined and concentrated vegetable extracts, and from forty-two to forty-four are contained in each vial, which is sold at the same price as the cheaper made and more ordinary pills found in the market. In curative virtues, there is no comparison to be made between them and the ordinary pills, as any one may easily learn by sending for a free sample, (four to seven doses) of the Pellets, which will be sent on receipt of name and address on a postal card.

ONCE USED THEY ARE ALWAYS IN FAVOR.

The Pellets cure biliousness, sick and bloated head, dizziness, costiveness, or constipation, sour stomach, loss of appetite, coated tongue, indigestion, or dyspepsia, windy belchings, "heartburn," pain and distress after eating, and kindred derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels. Put up in glass vials, therefore, always fresh and reliable. One little "Pellet" is a laxative, two are mildly cathartic. As a "dinner pill," to promote digestion, take one each day after dinner. To relieve distress from over-eating, they are unequaled. They are tiny, sugar-coated granules, any child will readily take them. Accept no substitute that may be recommended to be "just as good." It may be better for the dealer, because of paying him a better profit, but he is not the one who needs help. Address for free sample, WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

The Ex-Queen of the Hawaiian Islands

FOREVER RENOUNCES HER THRONE

And Declares Allegiance to the New Republican Government—She Begs Indulgence for Her Misguided Followers Lately in Rebellion.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 7.—The steamship Australia arrived yesterday. She confirms the report of the capture of Wilcox and Newell, leaders of the recent revolt, and the arrest of the ex-queen, who is a prisoner in her palace. The ex-queen has renounced all her sovereign rights. The military commission is still trying the rebels. No decisions have yet been rendered. Following is Lilioukalanani's letter to President Dole.

ISLAND OF OAHU.
"HONOLULU, Jan. 24, 1895.
"To Hon. Stanford Dole, President of the Republic of Hawaii:

"Sir—After full and free consultation with my personal friends and my legal advisers, both before and since my detention by military orders in the executive building, and acting in conformity with their advice and also upon my free volition, and in pursuance of my unalterable belief and understanding of my duty to the people of Hawaii, and to their highest and best interests and also for the sake of those misguided Hawaiians and others who have recently engaged in rebellion against the republic, and in an attempt to restore me to the position of queen which I held prior to the 17th day of January, A. D. 1893, and without any claim that I shall become entitled, by reason of anything that I may now say or do, to any other of different treatment or consideration at the hands of the government than I otherwise could and might legally receive, I now desire to express and make known, and do hereby express and make known to yourself as the only lawful and recognized head of the government, and to all the people of the Hawaiian Islands, whether or not they have yet become citizens of the republic, or are adherents of the monarchy, and to all diplomatic and other foreign representatives in the Hawaiian Islands, to all of whom I respectfully request you to cause this statement and action of mine to be made known as soon as may be, as follows, namely:

"First, in order to avoid any possibility of trouble or misunderstanding on the subject, although I do not think that any doubt or misunderstanding is either proper or possible, I hereby do fully and unequivocally admit and declare that the government of the republic of Hawaii is the only lawful government of the Hawaiian Islands, and that the late Hawaiian monarchy is finally and forever ended, and no longer of any legal or actual validity, force or effect whatsoever; and I do hereby forever absolve all persons whomsoever, on the Hawaiian Islands or elsewhere from every manner of allegiance or official obligation or duty to me and my heirs and successors forever, and I hereby declare to all such persons in the Hawaiian Islands that I consider myself as bound in duty and honor henceforth to support and sustain the government of the republic of Hawaii.

"Second, for myself, my heirs and successors, I do hereby, without any mental reservation or modification, fully, finally, unequivocally, irrevocably and forever abdicate, renounce and release unto the government of the republic of Hawaii and its legitimate successors forever, all claims or pretensions whatsoever to the late throne of Hawaii, or to the late monarchy of Hawaii, or to any part or to any existing or to any future government of Hawaii, or under or by reason of any present or formerly existing constitution, statute, law, position, right or claim of any and every kind, name or nature whatsoever, and whether the same consist of pecuniary or property consideration, or of personal status, hereby forever renouncing, disavowing and disclaiming all rights, claims, demands, privileges, honors, emoluments, titles and prerogatives whatsoever, under or by virtue of any former or existing government, constitution, law or custom of the Hawaiian Islands whatsoever, save and excepting only such rights and privileges as belong to me in common with all private citizens of or residents in the republic of Hawaii.

"Third, I do hereby respectfully implore for such misguided Hawaiians as have been concerned in the late rebellion against the republic of Hawaii such degree of executive clemency as the government may deem to be consistent with its duty to the community and such as a due regard for its violated laws may permit.

"Fourth, it is my sincere desire henceforth to live in absolute privacy and retirement from all publicity, or even appearance of being concerned in the public affairs of the Hawaiian Islands, further than to express, as I now do and shall always continue to do, my most sincere hope for the welfare and prosperity of Hawaii and its people and subjects of the government of the republic of Hawaii.

"Fifth, I hereby offer and present my duly certified oath of allegiance to the republic of Hawaii.

"Sixth, I have caused the foregoing statement to be prepared and drawn up and have signed the same without having received the slightest suggestion from the president of Hawaii concerning the same or any part thereof, or concerning any action or course of my own in the premises. Relying upon the magnanimity of the government of the republic, and upon its protection, I have the honor to be, Mr. President, at very respectfully, your most obedient servant.

LILIOKALANI DOMINIS.

On this 24th day of January, A. D. 1895, the foregoing was done in our presence, read over and considered carefully by Lilioukalanani Dominis, and she, the said Lilioukalanani Dominis, thereupon, in our presence, declared that the same was a correct, exact and full statement of her wishes and acts in the premises, which statement she declared to us that she desired to sign and acknowledge in our presence as her own free act and deed, and thereupon signed the same in our presence, and declared the same to be her free act and deed.

In witness whereof we have, at the request of the said Lilioukalanani Dominis, in her presence, hereto subscribed our names as attesting witnesses at the executive building in Honolulu, on the island of Oahu, this 24th day of January, A. D. 1895.

BRAND THE CLAIM AS FALSE.

World's Fair Officials Expose a Pretender to an Award.

CHICAGO, Ill., Feb. 6, 1895.—One of the chief results of the World's Fair in the claim now made to awards by some who were not even exhibitors. Officials of the Exposition have not as yet taken final action in the matter, believing the quick wit of the people will detect the spurious claims. But to the case of a New York baking powder, that has been widely advertising an award, the attention of the Chief of Awards for Agriculture, has been directed. He brands the claim of this pretender as false, declaring "Neither the records of this department, nor the official catalogue of the World's Columbian Exposition, show that this New York company was an exhibitor; consequently it could not receive an award at the World's Fair." Those who fairly won their honors at the Fair seem disposed to treat this fraud as any other fraud should be treated. The Price Baking Powder Company, of Chicago, having received the highest award, say they are convinced their claims, and those of all other holders of rightful honors, will be fully vindicated by the public.

ATTEMPTED BANK ROBBERY

A Crazy Preacher with a Package of Dynamite Creates a Sensation.

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 7.—An attempt was made to rob the First national bank of East Portland shortly after noon yesterday. J. C. Reed, a sensational preacher, entered the bank and, taking from his pocket a package, said to the cashier:

"There is enough nitro-glycerine in this to blow you and me to hell."

Before the cashier could act Reed bound and gagged him. Fortunately at this time the cashier of the bank across the street, noticing that something was wrong, picked up a shotgun and ran to the First national. He found the doors locked, but got the drop on the preacher through a window.

By this time a large crowd had collected, and some one broke a window and the rescuers climbed through. The assistant cashier was liberated and the preacher was taken to jail, followed by a large mob. He is believed to be insane.

Murdered His Wife's Betrayer and Him.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—A double tragedy occurred yesterday in the Germania hotel at 116 Greenwich street, a resort for immigrants of the poorer class. William Becker, aged 30, was murdered by Carl Pennecke, with whose wife Becker is said to have been intimate at one time. After killing Becker Pennecke killed himself, shooting himself through the heart. Becker was shot in the back of the head. The exact time the shooting occurred is not known. The bodies of the two men were discovered at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Another Treasurer Said to Be Short in His Accounts.

ATLANTA, Ga., Feb. 7.—The accounts of J. A. Mason, ex-treasurer of DeKalb county, do not balance by $15,000. He was treasurer of the county for several years. Just after his defeat for re-election last fall his house was burned and some of the county's books were destroyed. Mason's successor says the county should have $15,000 more in the bank than it has. Mason claims that the county owes him about $1,000. He is well-to-do, and says that if his accounts are wrong he will personally make the deficit good.

Four Firemen Fatally Injured by Falling Walls.

GALATOPOLIS, O., Feb. 7.—Four firemen were fatally injured by falling walls in a fire which occurred in this city early yesterday morning. The fire broke out in E. T. Moore & Son's book store, and destroyed property worth $39,000. The names of the injured men are Oliver Pritchett, Oscar Stuart, John North and M. D. Ghrist.

The Gold Reserve.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—The treasury gold reserve at the close of business yesterday stood at $42,182,641. The withdrawals for the day and late Tuesday afternoon at New York aggregated $1,074,570. No general resumption of gold withdrawals is expected.

Knights of the Macabees.

The State Commander writes us from Lincoln, Neb., as follows: "After trying other medicines for what seemed to be a very obstinate cough in our two children we tried Dr. King's New Discovery and at the end of two days the cough entirely left them. We will not be without it hereafter, as our experience proves that it cures where all other remedies fail."—Signed F. W. Stevens, State Com.

—Why not give this great medicine a trial, as it is guaranteed and trial bottles are free at King & Hubbard's Drug Store.

Mrs. CHARLES FLICK died at Champaign Saturday. She had been a cripple and an invalid for years.

THE HAYWARD TRIAL.

Which of Blixt's Confessions was the True One?

A SERIOUS QUESTION FOR HAYWARD.

As in One Case He Will be Able to Prove an Alibi—The Witness Testimony Unshaken—Mrs. Blixt on the Stand.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Feb. 7.—It means a great deal to Hayward whether Blixt's first or second confession is true. If he told the truth in his first confession, then Hayward will be able to prove an alibi. Mr. Erwin has adopted the idea that in his first confession Blixt told nearer the truth than in the second one. The accusation that Hayward did the killing was false. It was done by Blixt himself, as he has since confessed; but the man that urged him to do the deed was not Harry Hayward.

Erwin argued that Blixt had been compelled to change the time at which it was alleged Hayward had come to him with a bottle of whisky, because it had been pointed out to him that Hayward would be able to prove him a falsifier if he did not change it.

"Any man in the condition I was in," said Blixt, "would not be likely to know whether the time Hayward brought the whisky was 5 o'clock or 7:30."

Hayward laughed aloud at this, and looked squarely at Blixt the while. The face of the murderer turned livid, his voice trembled, and he half rose from the witness chair. "Yes," he cried, "this is no laughing thing, I tell you." He was pointing one shaking hand straight at Hayward, and his lips trembled as he gasped out: "Yes, you—you are the man that done it all. I know I tell the truth, you know."

Harry Hayward, with chin resting on his hand, his white teeth showing as his lips parted in a broad grin, had enraged the witness beyond endurance. Blixt was calmed and the case proceeded.

Blixt remained on the stand until after 5 o'clock when he complained of a severe headache and was excused with the understanding that he should be called to-day.

All through the trying ordeal of his cross-examination he has never hesitated an instant. Try as the skilled attorney might, he was unable to trap him into making a single damaging admission.

Mrs. Blixt was next called. She testified that Blixt and Hayward had held many conferences, but she never knew what they were about. About 11 o'clock on the night of the murder Hayward came to their bedroom and called: "Blixt, are you asleep?" About 3 o'clock he came down stairs and, calling to Blixt, said: "That girl on the fifth floor has been murdered. She was murdered for her money. Some fellow of hers met her out there and murdered her for her money. Isn't that too bad? I'm afraid, my $15,000 is lost. I wonder if I'd better go and tell the insurance people in the morning. They don't know who done it. They ain't got no clue."

The next conversation that occurred between Blixt and Hayward was the day of the sweatbox episode. Mrs. Blixt overheard the conversation, and said in telling it: "Harry came down and talked with Blixt in the boiler room. I heard him say: 'Those darn fools think I know something about the case. They thought they would take me before them and I would break down.'"

Nothing of consequence was brought out in the cross-examination.

AN ARKANSAS TREASURER

With a Shortage in His Cash Disappears from View.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Feb. 7.—C. F. Aycock, the treasurer of Boone county, Ark., is missing, and an examination of his accounts reveals a shortage of $4,000. The grand jury last week brought to light the discrepancy between his books and his cash. Monday morning he was advised of the discovery, and went off with the purpose, he said, of raising the amount of his shortage, and he has not been heard from since.

A few weeks ago he was found in his office, bound and gagged, and the treasury vault looted. It was made to appear that he had been robbed. He is believed to be in Mexico. His office was yesterday declared vacant.

WANTS DAMAGES

For the Attention of His Wife's Affections by a Retired Capitalist.

CANTON, O., Feb. 7.—Sample C. George, a farmer, has begun suit in the common pleas court against George Saxton, a wealthy retired capitalist, and brother-in-law of Gov. McKinley, for $30,000 damages for alleged alienation of his wife's affections. Mrs. George, as a dressmaker, has rooms in the Saxton block, and there the acts charged were said to have been committed. Mrs. George finally went to South Dakota and secured a divorce. The plaintiff charges that her expenses were defrayed by Saxton.

A PRETENDED DETECTIVE.

Who Ran Away with a Saloonkeeper's Wife, Tarred and Feathered.

LEIPSI, O., Feb. 7.—Frank Spark, a pretended detective, from Decatur Ind., was taken from the home of a relative, at Shawtown Tuesday night, about 12 o'clock, by a band of regulators, given a red hot dose of tar and feathers and ordered to leave. The man ran away with a saloonkeeper's wife two weeks since. She left him at Decatur and returned home. He followed and got the warm reception prepared by the regulators.

E. church, officiating. The ceremony was a quiet affair, only the immediate relatives of the couple being in attendance. The groom is 35 years of age and the bride 30 years. In Sight. The delayed steamer, La Gasconne, passed Queenstown to Boston to-day, 36 hours overdue. The tardiness of the French steamer has caused considerable worry for many people in this country and in Europe. The news was received by B. Z. Taylor to-day.

The Annanias Club.

There was a special meeting of the Annanias club last evening at the North Water street shoe shop. Important business claimed the attention of the members and there was a large attendance. A new candidate was present and he was required to surpass the stories of the trained prevaricators on pain of the dreaded blackmail. Member after member related hair curling narratives, and the president wound up with a yard which melted a square yard of snow in front of the building and raised the mercury in a thermometer a block away.

All eyes were turned upon the candidate and he began: "I have heard some remarkable stories," said he, "and believe every word of 'em. But I know a story which I think is pretty good as showing the sense of gratitude in dumb creatures. My sister lived out in Kansas during the grasshopper plague. One day she was working in her garden when she came on a hopper which had hurt himself somehow and couldn't get out of the way. She was about to smash the creature when it looked up at her in such an appealing way that she hadn't the heart to kill it. She took it into the house and it was soon well again and followed my sister about the house just like a tame kitten. A day or two after the grasshoppers came. There was millions of 'em and they went right to work in the garden and corn field. The loss of their crops meant starvation to my sister and her family. She sat down and cried and that hopper just came and looked up in her eyes and seemed to be trying to tell her something. He hopped out of the door and seemed to be saying something to the boss hopper. In a little while the whole army flew away and never came back again. The other farmers in the neighborhood lost all their crops but nothing was hurt on my sister's place."

Amid a silence which could have been cut with a knife the president gave the right hand of fellowship to the candidate and all the members said amen.

Selling the M. E. Church.

The trustees of the First M. E. church had a meeting last night. There was not a full attendance, owing to the storm and cold. The meeting was called by the president of the board to discuss the advisability of putting a price upon the church property on the corner of North Water and East William streets. Certain parties wish to purchase this valuable corner if it can be secured at proper figures. They refuse to make an offer before the trustees have fixed a price at which they will sell, for the reason, they assume, that unless a price has been fixed by the board any offer that might be made would be a waste of time, as any offer that might be made would prove a temptation to the board to raise the price. The board discussed the matter some but came to no conclusion. One of the members said this morning that in his opinion the board would not fix a price, at least such a one as would mean they were willing to sell. If the property is not sold the church will ultimately be remodelled. There are a great many people who cannot see why the church should not show a greater disposition to sell, but when the fact is considered that a suitable site for a church could not be purchased for less than about $10,000, and that this amount would make a big hole in any sum that might be secured for the present grounds, and to erect a suitable church would require a large sum in addition to the balance, it is not so strange after all. In addition to this these are not the best times Decatur has seen for raising money to build churches. The trustees will probably have another meeting soon.

A Fire.

Perry & Hall, grocers on North. Calhoun street, had a narrow escape from fire this morning. When the clerk opened the store at 7 o'clock he found the floor in front of the store blazing away at a lively rate. Fortunately water was at hand and the flames were soon extinguished. The fire originated in a box filled with sawdust, in which some one had dropped a cigar stub or lighted match. The fire in the box had been noticed the evening before and extinguished as supposed. Had the clerk been a few minutes later the store and its contents would have gone up in flame and smoke.

Mr. Shellabarger is far advanced in years, and having been in very poor health for some time, he has been unable personally to look after his affairs.

THE COLD SPELL.

Business Affected and Street Cars Tied Up—Coal in Demand.

The continued cold weather is something remarkable. It causes the oldest inhabitant to lift up his voice and talk of other cold spells, laying particular stress upon certain years when the mercury sank out of sight. The present frigidty began January 21, and with but slight moderation it has been too cold for comfort for seventeen successive days and nights. How long it will continue neither Hicks nor Foster will tell, or if they can they do not.

And with the repeated drops in the temperature came dashes of snow which carry terror to the pedestrians and street car management, and fills the hearts of the small boy and girl of exuberant spirits with delight, because they can slide and can see visions of coasting parties and bob-sled excursions.

The snow has covered the street rail way tracks too frequently to count. Last evening the cars were sent to the barn early because it was said the motors were being damaged by the snow, and because it was hard work to keep the drifting snow off the rails. The backs had it all their own way last night and this morning, and those who were too poor to hire a carriage, had to walk.

The mercury last night at ten o'clock was 8 above zero. This morning at 8 it was 3 below zero and getting colder. What is in store for us to-night and the balance of the month time will tell. All we can do is to grin or freeze and bear it, thankful it is no worse.

This morning the depot line was opened and the street cars were put in motion. The West Main and Eldorado street branches were opened, and men were put at work clearing the tracks on the other branches of the line.

The busiest men in the city are the coal dealers. Every wagon is kept on the go to fill orders.

WATER FAMINE POSSIBLE.

If this cold weather keeps up there may be a water famine in Decatur. D. A. Moffitt reports the ice in the river 36 inches thick. How long will it take for the ice to reach the bottom and stop the flow? All of the small streams are frozen to the bottom.

LATE TRAINS.

Wabash passenger due here at 3:45 o'clock from Chicago was over an hour late this morning, and the early train from Toledo was one hour and a half late.

No. 46 Wabash passenger from the west, due here at 6:55 a. m., was over five hours late.

No. 44 Wabash freight from Quincy, due here at 11:05, is four hours late.

No. 44 Wabash passenger from St. Louis was thirty minutes late, arriving here at 12 o'clock, and No. 4 from St. Louis, due at 12:02, was forty minutes late.

The Illinois Central passenger from the north was 45 minutes late. This is the train which carries the Chicago dailies.

The P., D. & E. and Vandalia trains were on time.

New Princes.

At a meeting of Lucullus Council, No. 1, O. M. A., held last evening at Coeur de Leon hall, over Linn & Scruggs, the following candidates trod the warm sands of the oriental realm and were made Princes of the Orient in true oriental splendor and with due solemnity H. C. Dempsey, A. L. Radcliff, Harry Rutherford, A. H. Beck, W. S. Ruby, A. F. Kennelley, P. D. Roby and W. E. Billings, of Cerro Gordo. The next meeting of the Orient will be held on the evening of the first Wednesday in March. A large number of applications have already been accepted for this meeting.

Mismanaged.

Those who have taken an interest in the Nebraska sufferers will read the following with astonishment and chagrin. It comes in the form of a telegram from Lincoln, Neb:

"With the $1,000,000 worth of supplies contributed by other states and the $50,000 cash appropriated by Nebraska for her drought sufferers many of the destitute are starving and freezing. It is the result of poor organization of the State Relief Commission. The commission is to be reorganized this week by the legislature. Hundreds of cars of relief are on side tracks in Nebraska awaiting disposition of the commission."

Death of Mrs. Gephart.

Mrs. Mary Gephart died yesterday morning at 10 o'clock at her late home, five miles northwest of the city, aged 38 years. The deceased leaves a husband and one daughter aged 11 years to mourn her loss.

The funeral will be held Saturday morning at 11 o'clock at Bowling Springs church, Rev. Jeffers officiating. The interment will be at Bowling Springs cemetery.

Reception this evening at the Methodist church on West Main street.
